

REFERANCE DATA

1948 – The school is founded under the name of “Metalurgic Girl School” (vocational education).

1948 – 1960 – The school functions with mechanic profile, preparing students for locksmith and turner. Its activity took place in the administrative premises of the house machines factory “23 August” (today’s SAMUS) within the framework of DGRM.

1960 - The school turns into Vocational school of auto apprentice in the former barrack on Cloșca Blvd.

1964 - After the concord between “Regionala CF Cluj”, IRA Cluj and IRA Satu Mare, the school’s location becomes the current one (dr. V. Lucaciu Blvd, no. 1).

1964 – 1968 / The student’s coaching is done in the automobile domain with contracts for IRA and Motor Depot in the entire country from Iași to Craiova.

1968 – Our school goes under the guardianship of Regionala CF Cluj and, in the same time the profile changes, the students being coached for jobs like: wagon mechanics and railway engine mechanics, thus assuring workers for CFR.

1968 – 1971 – “B” building is made which contains the workshops and the boarding school.

1974 – The school turns into School Group containing the Mechanic High School no.2 and the CF Vocational School.

1990 – The school goes under the guardianship of the School Inspectorate Satu Mare and MIS. The school’s profile adapts to the economy market and high technology; there are chosen professions from transport and telecommunication.

1991 – In concordance with the politics of opening towards Europe in telecommunication, a bilingual section is founded (teaching in Romanian – French) to coach international post and telecommunication operators.

6-th December 1997 – As a result of the previous achievements, through the Education Minister’s disposition the current name of the school is given School Group of Transport and Telecommunication “Ion I.C. Brătianu” Satu Mare.

1-st of September 2007- As a reward for the results obtained by the school, by an order of the Ministry of Education, Research and Youth, the school changes its name from School Group of Transport and Telecommunication “Ion I.C. Brătianu” Satu Mare, into Technical College of Transport and Telecommunication “Ion I.C. Brătianu” Satu Mare.

1-st of September 2018 - by order of the Ministry of Education, the name of the educational institution becomes Technological High School "Ion I.C. Brătianu "Satu Mare.